Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla and Dock.

THE articles above named are the principal ingredients of this medicine With these ingredients of vegetable origin are combined, designed to render them more active and consequently more immediately effective

The Dock or rather a species of it now ranks as a medicinal plant second to no one of the vegetable kingdom With the aid of a distinguished chemist whom the proprietor has consulted in the preparation of the compound he has succeeded in overcoming the difficulty of preserving the extract of the root for any considerable length of time

For many years the proprietor has tested in his practice the efficacy of the principal substances of the compound and is perfectly satisfied that they possess all the properties which have been ascribed to them Recently he discovered the secret of uniting them which has resulted in the production of the compound In this the ingredients are found to act in harmony and to lose none of the qualities which they separately possess

A larger portion of Sarsaparilla is soluble than has generally been supposed The extract must to be relied on and least liable to decomposition is procured by subjecting the root to the action of the menstrua usually employed in extracting its virtues for a long time without the aid of any other accelerating agent None is permitted to be used in the compound, that has not been obtained by this process and that has been less than a year in preparation

The Compound is recommended for Scrofulus Erysipelas, Ulcerous affections Eruptions, and Mercurial diseases Also for the numerous maladies arising from sedentary employments occupations of a harassing and fatiguing nature intense applications, exposures to extremes of heat and cold overtaking the physical powers and other abuses of the constitution among which are Neuralgia, Pain Affection of the Liver Bilious Complaints and Dyspepsia or Indigestion

In diseases of warm climates with which the proprietor became familiar in his practice in Havana some years since, the compound will prove particularly efficacious he has a remedy and a preventative

This medicine has been for some time in use in this city, where the proprietor has passed nearly half a century of his professional life It was extensively prescribed by him while in practice and it is believed to be in favor with his medical brethren in general to whom he is known

The Great Remedy for Gonorrhœa

CURED, Strictures, and all analogous complaints by Dr DOUGLASS'S ARABIAN PASTE. Dr Douglass is well known having practised in the principal cities in the Union during the last 40 years His only reason for introducing the Paste to this public manner is that consciousness that there are thousands of ill treated complaints in this city—thousands of individuals who are going down to premature graves by taking the miserable drugs of quacks

Dr D most solemnly affirms that during his practice of forty years, this Paste has never, in one single instance, failed of effecting a cure in a few days without any changed diet or hindrance from business He has had some of the most stubborn cases—cases that have resisted the regular course of treatment adopted by our first physicians, for months and even years, but after taking the Paste for a few days, the angry symptoms disappeared and the patients were discharged, entirely cured

If the unfortunate, instead of dragging themselves at such monstrous, would purchase only one box of the Arabian Paste, we should not see so many miserable bodies and sallow countenances as we do at the present time.

We guarantee each and every box to be as represented, or the price paid for it will be given the purchasers on returning the empty boxes

Persons only by the original inventor and sole proprietor, Dr PETER C DOUGLASS, at his Office No 55 Union street Boston, of 20 one box where he can be confidently consulted in every disease incident to the human frame, and the patient only upon the most favorable terms of treatment that can be obtained.

Ratification Meeting at Hampden.

The friends of Gen Taylor in Hampden will hold a grand ratification meeting at the Town house in the Town on Saturday evening next, at seven o'clock; and they invite all the friends of

in the vicinity to unite with them on the occasion

Organization of the Rough and Ready Club.

The Whig young men of our city, to the number of about four hundred organized a Rough and Ready Club, at the the City Hall last evening, to work for the election of General ZACHARY TAYLOR to the Presidency

The meeting was called to order by S P Dinsmore, who proposed as Chairman of the meeting Wm Henry Farnham who has served under General Taylor on the Rio Grande Mr Farnham was greeted with rapturous applause, and made a brief and neat speech on assuming the duties of chairman H G O Morrison was chosen Secretary

On motion G W Gorham, S P Dinsmore Wm Boyd, J D Bartlett and C B Hayes were appointed a committee to report a list of officers

During the consultations of the Committee Abraham Sanborn was called up n and addressed the meeting, reviewing at much length the various measures and professions of political parties

The committee reported the following officers and they were chosen by the meeting, viz.—

For President, WM H McCRILLIS

For Vice Presidents—

Ward 1. PRESCOTT P HOLDEN
" 2 SILAS T HAYES
" 3 ALBION K BRADBURY
" 4 HORATIO FILL
" 5 ROBERT CARLILE
" 6 WILLIAM BOYD
" 7 ISAAC C BATCHELDER

RICHARD D BARTLETT, } Secretaries
FREDERIC H HEDGMAN, }

The Club was addressed by S P D nsmore, A G Randall of Passadumkeag, J S Bayward and Wm H Farnham

An invitation was received from the Committee of arrangements for a Rough and Ready celebration of the 4 h of July, for the Club to attend

The invitation was accepted and S P Dinsmore, Wm Boyd, G W Gorham A P Bradbury and S C Hatch were appointed a Committee to make arrangements

The meeting was enlivened by excellent music from the Citizen's Band and adjourned at a late hour in fine spirits and with hearty cheers for "Old Zack"

☞ The steamer Penobscot, will start from Steam boat wharf at six o'clock this evening to convey as many of the friends of ZACHARY TAYLOR as wish to attend the ratification meeting at Hampden this evening free of charge The Hampden people intend to have a grand time

☞ It is amusing, really amusing to look over the locofocopaperswhich are what they now are with their previous declarations About the whole of the Locofocojournals in the Bangor Democratic state declared and repeated the declaration in a multitude of forms that the Whigs had no idea of nominating Gen Taylor and their talk on the matter was all idle a pretence unworthy credence, and fitting only to excite action

Now the poor thing s in a peck of troubles because it sees in the course of the Whigs a spirit of political liberality—a honorable conciliation—and of effective fraternization of all true republicans who wish to see our government administered upon the just principles of our constitution and the intentions of its framers

"I believe in the Democratic party, and in the infallibility of its leaders in their political creed which the Democrat wishes the people to acknowledge This belief has been acted upon quite too long for the honor and the welfare of the country and the prosperity and happiness of the people A better directive energy again to be acknowledged by the great mass of the freemen of this country and that is a belief in the country and its capacity and duty to promote the welfare of the citizen—to unfold the resources of the country—to make this the best government under the sun by having it administered upon pure and honest principles for the people and not for party

☞ The Calais Journal which is among the last dippings of locofocoism, appears to be very fierce and very nervous because according to its notions the Whig party have changed ground—have made a movement, and thereby fallen from their former high praise-worthy and honorable moral position

It snuffles in some dreadable sort of agony that a party should descend from so great a height to a depth so profound

Now all this is decidedly funny This same Journal has been for years spitting out spleen at the Whig party denying them any principles and affecting to the malignity of its loftiness to regard the Whig party as almost too low for its contempt

The present course of the Journal is only noteworthy as showing how brainless and false it has been in the past, and how little it is worthy the confidence of any of its readers

☞ The Montpelier (Vt.) Watchman, though warmly in favor of a different nomination for President, comes promptly to the support of Gen Taylor We give below a specimen of its language

"Our first impulse was to rebel; your second, to regard any sacrifice as of less than a feather's weight, compared to the necessity of Cass's and our first and truest thought was to reverse the whole case—carefully to examine the position and character of General Taylor—to inquire into the effect of withholding support from him—and then to see how all the principles of the Whig party can best be sustained We doubt not that we will be the source of all considerate Whigs, to whom, like ourselves, the nomination of a mere Statesman

☞ The following article we copy from the Exeter N H News Letter, one of the best, neatest family newspapers in the country —

ZACHARY TAYLOR.

This man now occupies an important position before the nation. It is the chief duty of one of the parties to the present, and responsible and most important office in the gift of the American people and the world Two years ago he was hardly known or heard of by the great body of the people He entered the army, a few short forty years ago, and has served the country all the time since Yet two years ago how few, how different are standing, his purposes where he is, his connection with the republic, with fame and destination Now there is not probably one single American citizen who has not heard of, and often not know Gen Taylor Not a Kentuckian but will know and all tongues speak of him; Go where you will, with whom you may in this wide land and watch all in all places be in known and spoken of Nothing of the prominent men of the nation is more prominent

The reason of this great and sudden change is not so much that he has changed or altered, as circumstances, events have fortunately enabled him to exhibit to the nation and the world that upon which he has quietly and well for years been growing, but which, if seen by a fitful fortune to effect or first to display

It did not require much discernment to come to the conclusion that there are those, and come who make such pretensions to intelligence who think not greatly of Gen Taylor and rather ungenerously of his talents and merits He, with them, is a mere creature of circumstance hardly worth thinking about worthy of career through All this is never affects him, and now that strong voices may be distinctly heard, Gen Taylor has given ample proof that he is not only a more than ordinary man but solid in great and extraordinary man

He is not learned in books He would no doubt be a refined and highly cultivated man—it was not his privilege in youth, and in the morning of life to sit in the rich harbor of science and be admitted in the halls of learning and air all the light in the fields of literature and drink of the cool refreshing fountains and invigorating streams Other duties devolved upon him In the plain duties and under the circumstances he was born

We find men when but a boy amore straining gudeog on his sword to fight the battles of his country, and his life has been the soldier's life he frequented in camp his occupation ever, he perhaps more emphatically than any other American citizen And though he has been essentially in the service for a long time and purposed the in at dangerous, destructive, vicissitudinal relations yet from it he retains and effects of those who in war awakening the energies of the fiery trial in its rapture with it the cool strategist in his tent, the deep thinker and calculator in the moment, those generous and peerless traits that always all others adorn and give grace and lustre to the character of man, In placing modesty, dignity in all show and pretence, just severe, firm, hard, sound equilibrium of mind at all times—in safety and in danger, in prosperity and adversity in victory and disaster The old farmer who has spent his days and his mind on his broad acres for the richest produce and streamlets of New England and never gone hardly from his native town and breathed in no other but the pure free and liberal air that ever animated such a soil creates such men in Haiden, who takes his lessons of wisdom and morality and virtue from the teachings of nature herself

As a man made from his military fame and achievements, however eminent he may be in this respect, Gen Taylor may be the most interesting, and striking, and worthy of admiration He never brilliant may have been his victories, however the duration, his name, just, great, courageous and has heard he may have been in the hour of battle, am dat the clash of arms and all the stirring strife of arms, in conflict of men arrayed against men in terrible and deadly array yet we does he only expose through his character, will of mind and mode about it, and never all and it were there in more grand, more brilliant more attractive, more commanding, more glorious, more triumphant, more victorious Well hath it been said, peace hath its victories—Look at Gen Taylor on this field Hyperions from a most brilliant and successful campaign He has fought great battles against great odds and won great victories He has won high and many and added another page of fame to the history of his country, and given new lustre to his arms Yet he comes home quietly, without ostentation, apparently as little elevated and elated by a thousand returning hours from such the glorious fields and gorgeous pageants as he was used to in the recital of which a great portion of all great minds Instead of nursing a hope through the trouble to attract attention and make an exhibition of what he had achieved, he is seen mowing about among his neighbors and the circle at home keeply and fortunately will no pretension, appears content and satisfied He is much like him who is best in war, most in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen Here we see him about the Rio Grande It is all over All are at home Those of Gen Taylor's character every where seen and read by all men He is an extraordinary man Living in the nation He has marked characters He has traits of a great man

When he took command of the forces in the Mexican War and commenced operations, tongue but few knew of his services, he was unpretuous to show himself the soldier and statesman and he at once, the chance being given him attracted the attention of not only his country but of Europe Military men for the water at once saw a new General in the field They saw in Gen Taylor so much original new, attractive prominently, commanding surpassing This was the tone of their leading prints at the time They speak of him as one courageous self-reliance and great resources

Gen Taylor combines in his character, what most complete and commanding degree the elements of popularity in a republic a nation like his That man never lived in this republic who has more good traits and points to arrest the attention, and acquire and awaken the sympathies of the great and substantial laboring classes, who are in fact the nation, the whole nation, than Gen Taylor And the eyes are fixed on him Their hearts are bound to him heart They know him and they appreciate him, and they will stand by him They look upon him as "bone of their bone, flesh of their flesh," and whoever thinks or supposes they can be driven from him or be seduced to forsake him, sadly mistakes

It is said that Gen Taylor lives at the South and is a slaveholder True is true Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and Marshall lived at the South and were slaveholders Yet who shall reproach them? Who shall reproach Taylor also for hence he could not do so, for what circumstances, for how made him? Slavery is wrong, a great evil, all know

Yet we should not lose our reason when we speak of it The South and those who live there are a part of this republic Their ancestors fought with our ancestors in the revolution Together they framed the government The same constitution protects all, and binds all, and respects all The same glorious flag proudly floats over all Their disgrace is our disgrace, their glory is our glory, their hopes are our hopes, their fears are our fears We are one people of the nation, one family

And we shall be so as much and as united, and as unyielding as generosity and charity as to reject that or that individual because he happens to be born and bred and inherits the customs, and adopts the domestic institutions of the or that State or section of the republic

Is that ever unreasonable or base in the friends of the United States, the great and eloquent Webster, of Massachusetts, the brilliant statesman in history, whose courage of his speech as to smash to pieces every bone that we have to characterize?

If Whigs shall be found, who in any place besides the Senate or elsewhere, to express as much happens it happens, to spring up beyond the cattle limits of my own State and neighborhood, when I refuse for any such cause, be it any cause the homage due to American talent, to elevated patriotism, to sincere devotion to liberty and the country, or if I see an encouragement of treason—If I see exhibited extraordinary capacity and virtue in any person I be S with—and if moved by local prejudice or gangrened by State jealousy, I get up here to abuse the title of a man from his just character, and just fame, may my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth

The Case of Mitchell the Irish Patriot

The fact that Mr Mitchel Esq who has heard and talented editor of the Irish Nation newspaper the champion of the rights of man and the freedom of his own dear native land, has been condemned to suffer fourteen long years of banishment, wear ng the convict dress of English felons, for the publication of the free thought on the treatment which his government and people had received from English rule, ought to make every Irishman's heart thrill in the most remote chamber

We know not what mighty influence held the Irish people at home, from a fierce mid-ocean of internecine ardor against whatever of physical force might have shown itself, when they saw their leader and friend and their great advocate of liberty torn from them, placed on ship board and conveyed away to a fourteen years imprisonment—barred, in effect, at we believe their unclosed mouth Has the heart of this people died within them? Have all the generous, noble self sacrificing emotions exhibited so to noble deeds, become withered in all the green fresh land of the sweet isle of the heart? Is it possible that they could have submitted to hear the extraordinary sentence of suffering inhumanity against oppression, unmoved and not the indignance of a crime, and he, the noble minded and stout hearted who had raised his voice in behalf of his countrymen against oppressive government, torn away from home and family, wife and children, country and friends, the green fields which delighted him in infancy and all the associations which cluster around the heart, to endure the direful lot of a galley slave for no other principle, and for all his eyes forever upon all he loved on earth? We can not understand how this apparent apathy on the part of the Irish people, under the circumstances could be accounted for, unless it be that they are preparing for one grand mighty, final effort to throw off the yoke of oppression, or if they fail, to fall and die

We find among the Irish in this country a determination to do their best towards rescuing Mitchell from his confinement at Bermuda and if they warmly and heartily engage in it they can hardly fail of being successful They encourage the idea, many of them certainly that their countrymen at home are determined upon a struggle which shall fully vindicate their right to freedom In such a work we can not but wish them the highest success since the object of their government should be to promote the good fate of the governed

☞ Capt Elijah Wood, formerly of this city has recently returned from Wisconsin, bringing with him four thousand barrels of flour of excellent quality, and one thousand barrels of pork from very large, corn fed, Wisconsin hogs selected by the Captain for the market He also has brought a specimen, and it is beautiful of the wheat raised in that country We wish, for the benefit of ourselves and hundreds of others in the city that he had brought a large quantity of the wheat, or of Graham wheat meal, as it is an article much needed here and cannot be found

A specimen of the Wheat, and of the flour may be seen at this office, and those who wish to purchase either Flour or Pork can learn their advantage by calling where they may be found

☞ Esther Zachary Taylor of Lewis County will be the first Democratic of the United States in the country, we shall live in peace with all the world, contented without any present inducement to out seek up new territories to go over and conquer

In the latter we shall have a continuance of the anti-human and aggressive policy which has characterized the present administration.

☞ Henry Smith, under arrest for offering to pass counterfeit money was further examined before the Police Court on Thursday last

In his defence, Dr Carter of Fort and wife are and This was the person for whom Smith said he received the money, and who it was stated had gone to Mexico, and defense out that he Mexico referred to, was the town by that name, in this state Dr Carter's testimony was not deemed sufficient to clear the prisoner and the case continued for further examination to Thursday next at two o'clock

☞ Wm H. Seward, of New York has addressed a letter to the New York Whig Committee of correspondence in which he declares his "political acquiescence in the nomination made at Baltimore last," and says that he will cheerfully give to the nominations his support

☞ The Whigs of New Haven held a ratification meeting on Thursday evening, at which much enthusiasm was manifested Speeches were made by Mr Rockwell and others, and it was determined to support the regularly nominated candidates of the Whig Convention

☞ The third lecture of the course of Invenes by interesting and highly finished lectures of Prof Winchell on the Hebrew Commonwealth, will be delivered at Market Hall on this evening Our advice to all our people is to attend the lecture and that to be delivered on Monday evening, as we feel assured that both the subject, and the manner, will interest them very much

☞ We understand, says the Vicksburg Whig, by a friend just up the river, that Gen Taylor is to take the place of Gen Brooke as commanding officer at New Orleans, and that the latter will resume the old command at Jefferson Barracks, Mo

☞ The Whigs of Somerset will meet in convention at Skowhegan on the 5th of July A candidate for representative to Congress, two candidates for State Senators, one for County Commissioner, and one for County Treasurer, will be nominated.

☞ The liars by Wyer are not quite fit for publication. The writer need not despair, at he plane study, patient reflection and long time, will be able, doubtless, to read magazine or write one would be glad to publish

CONGRESS.

Washington, June 20.

In the Senate the Indian Appropriation Bill was taken up, the question being on Mr Butler's amendment, providing for compensation to the Cherokees for expenses and subsistence in their move out from North Carolina

Mr Butler said the amendment was a simple act of justice to the Cherokees They had been deprived of their lands and they had a right to be paid for them, and for expenses incurred in locating them

A debate ensued, which lasted several hours till finally the question was stated for the amendment of Mr Butler, and the bill read a third time and ordered to be engrossed

In the house Mr Jackson of Del offered a resolution, for all leave the House to employ the new messenger of Mr Pettit to take up pass and sign The resolution was opposed by several members and finally laid on the table

Mr King from the library Committee reported a joint resolution providing for the erection of a granite monument to Benjamin Adams in the Congress Burying Ground

Hester Hedley of Maine and Bowlin of Mo., opposed the resolution The latter thought all the encumbrances in the Burying Ground ought to be dug

While the question was pending, the House on motion of Mr Lincoln, (Whig) resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union

The bill to aid Dr Darlington in making known the medicinal properties of certain plants was then read from the report in a speech against the bill

Mr Hudson of Mass objected to the speech almost always in the case of certain bills, and he read from the report in a speech against the bill

Mr Hudson said he was referring to facts in speech and that in writing such a speech was to be found in the report

Mr Fickett, Fillmore Democrat, was the next Whig speaker expressed his sentiments in favor of Taylor and then in Mr Fickett's address which was the first he ever delivered in Congress

Mr Taylor, Rail Split, a meeting which was to have been held at Baltimore on Monday night did not attend Mr Webster was expected to speak, was postponed on account of the weather until Tuesday evening Mr Webster was quite indisposed and would have been unable to speak He is coming north by advice of all his physicians

☞ The citizens of Portland in favor of the election of TAYLOR and FILLMORE are to hold a grand ratification meeting in that city on Monday evening next The call is signed by a very large number

☞ A Democrat the newly elected Mayor of New Orleans and Major Bonneval of Dublin, Esq it Georgia

☞ It is said that Henry Clay has written a letter declaring his intention to vote for Gen Taylor

☞ The New York Express has appeared in a new and beautiful type and in strong and active the support of Taylor and Fillmore It has been in good shape for the cause and well deserves a large support

The Difference.

Gen Taylor says he will not oppose the legislation of Congress, unless such legislation is unwise and unjust if the Constitution Cass is pledged to veto any bill that Congress may pass the object of which is to secure free labor in free soil Though Taylor is a slave holder between him and Cass the free territory Democracy can not prefer the latter

The Globe, the Barnburner Locofocopaper draws the above comparison—and we commend it to the attention of dissatisfied Anti-slavery Whigs, whose opinion is playing into Cass' hands.

☞ The New York City Whig General Committee have resolved to support Taylor and Fillmore and have resolved to call a Grand ratification meeting to respond to the nominations of the Philadelphia convention

Gen. Taylor on War.

The following expression was uttered by Gen Taylor last Winter at New Orleans It was given from the heart of a noble and good man

"The pig and fat list on off the greatest victories never relish after the heat and excitement of the battle, are peeled by heel toe at pregnant sorrow and pain, and that war, after all, was a great pity by him the greatest glory who could avoid it"

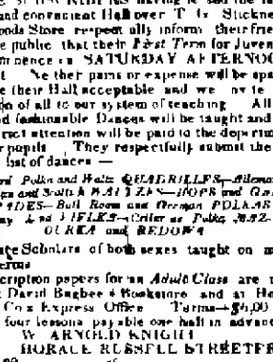
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE INDIAN MEDICINE



The same yesterday to-day and forever.

Certificate from Col Tate editor of the Columbia Democrat Pa

OFFICE OF THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT
Bloomsburg Columbia Co Pa
March 4 1848

Dr William Wright—Dear Sir—I am one of the many whose aversion to quack nostrums has degreed them of the benefits resulting from the use of good medicines Acting under this influence I have seldom resorted to the Pill box Last March when you commenced advertising in my paper I was induced to give your Indian Vegetable Pills a trial and after having fairly tested their merits by myself and family gave them a decided preference over every other preparation

In every instance when afflicted with sick headache, or when the stream of life was encumbered with morbid humors I found speedy relief from the use of your Pills By taking from four to six on going to bed (when indisposed I have always been required to health whose loss of time and will not the expense of a physician Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills possess the distinguished merit of operating effectually without disturbing the rest of the patient and in my case without producing even sickness at the stomach

Respectfully your friend &c

[From the Delaware Express Delhi N Y]
WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS—41 though not particularly fond of patent medicines we must confess that we have become a convert to these pills having had an opportunity on one or two occasions to test the efficacy For a gentle med cine one or two will be found sufficient though effectual Where bile or other impurities have accumulated and more thorough medicine is required a dose of three or four of these pills taken on going to bed will be found effectual in cleansing the stomach and restoring the bowels to a healthy state We speak from experience and take pleasure in commending the pills to the public
